

Introduced Version

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION No. _____

DIGEST OF INTRODUCED RESOLUTION

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION recognizing Philip J. Sachtleben on the occasion of his departure from the Legislative Services Agency.

Brown C

_____, read first time and referred to Committee on

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION recognizing Philip J. Sachtleben on the occasion of his departure from the Legislative Services Agency.

Whereas, Philip J. "Satch" Sachtleben has once again joined the world of higher education as the associate vice president for governmental affairs at Ball State University;

Whereas, In his new position, Satch serves as the liaison to members of the Indiana General Assembly and other state and federal governmental agencies and representatives;

Whereas, Satch began his life at the Legislative Services Agency (LSA) as a staff attorney, soon leaving for greener pastures in the U. S. Virgin Islands, where he served as chief legal counsel to the Legislature;

Whereas, He returned to the LSA in 1988 to serve as the director of the Office of Bill Drafting and Research;

Whereas, After departing LSA for the second time in the mid 1990s, Satch worked as governmental relations director at Ball State University and also for WellPoint/Anthem Inc;

Whereas, The lure of the General Assembly was too strong for Satch to resist, however;

Whereas, In 1997 he returned to the State House once again, this time to serve as executive director of the Legislative Services Agency;

Whereas, Satch worked tirelessly to improve the level of service the LSA was able to give the General Assembly;

Whereas, During his tenure as executive director, the LSA was on the leading edge of technology, constantly updating and upgrading equipment and services offered to the LSA's "clients" down the hall;

Whereas, Satch spearheaded a move to have the General Assembly's legislative printing done in-house, resulting in a tremendous savings to the taxpayers; and

Whereas, The offices of the Legislative Services Agency and the halls of the State House will seem empty somehow even though they are teeming with people, once Satch departs Room 301 for the last time: Therefore,

*Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana,
the Senate concurring:*

- 1 SECTION 1. That the Indiana General Assembly sincerely
- 2 congratulates Philip J. "Satch" Sachtleben on the occasion of his
- 3 employment with Ball State University. The members of the Indiana
- 4 General Assembly and the employees of the Legislative Services
- 5 Agency express their gratitude for his countless hours of dedicated
- 6 service to the General Assembly and the entire state. We wish him well
- 7 in all his future endeavors, but we express our sadness at his departure,
- 8 which will leave a tremendous void in our lives.
- 9 SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of
- 10 Representatives shall transmit a copy of this resolution to Philip J.
- 11 Sachtleben.

